

Collection Development for Academic Libraries: Twelfth Seminar

Friends House, Euston, London, Friday 15th May 2020

TRANSITION – PROBLEMS, SOLUTIONS, CONCLUSIONS.

#NAGcd12

Slides: <https://nag.org.uk/development/nagcd12>

09:00-10:00	Registration & networking
10.00-10.10	Welcome/Introduction to NAG		@UkLibrariesNAG
10.10-10.40	Paper 1: Gin, cakes and karaoke: how we transitioned at The University of Law (and lived to tell the tale)	Jane Del-Pizzo and Heather Robinson, The University of Law
10.40-11.10	Paper 2: Migrating Reading Lists: an opportunity for positive change	Angela Walker, University of Salford
11.10-11:35	Tea/Coffee Break
11.35-12.05	Paper 3: Taking (most) people with you: managing change and developing resilience	Karen Carden, University of the Arts London	@karenjcarden
12.05-13.05	Workshop: Transition: The Game	Kevin O'Donovan and Jo Adams-Lingwood, London School of Economics and Political Science	@libkod
13.05-13.50	Lunch & networking
13.55-14.00	Welcome back
14.00-14.30	Paper 4: TARP – A purchasing approach for reading lists material at Bangor University using Gobi	Alan Dawson, Bangor University
14.30-15.00	Paper 5: Value based budgeting	Birgit Fraser and Andrea Packwood, Anglia Ruskin University	@BJF_Librarian
15.00-15.25	Tea/Coffee Break
15.25-15.55	Paper 6: Workflow transitions	Neil O'Brien, National University of Ireland Galway
15.55-16.25	Paper 7: Three years of change: Perry Library's transition to "smart acquisitions"	Ayesha Khan and Malcolm Polfreman, London South Bank University.	@askalibrarylady
16:25-16:30	Close

Gold Sponsors